Senior Skip Trip

The 1965 seniors had an unusual skip trip. Twenty-four members accompanied by Mr. Freitag and Bud Jordeth, traveled to Redfield to visit the Home of Mentally Retarded.

The group left at 9:00 on Wednesday, May 12th, arriving at Redfield at 11:00. After visiting the Home, the seniors journied on to Aberdeen. Following an hour of free time they attended a movie. The weary, footsore seniors returned home late Wednesday evening.

Prom . . .

In the midst of an oriental garden, the Junior class entertained the Seniors and faculty at a dinner banquet and formal dance on Saturday, May 8.

Junior class president Deanna Aman welcomed the guests and Wally Sieck acknowledged at the 6:30 banquet. Eight Sophomores portrayed Chinese coolies, and served the dinner and entertained everyone. They were as follows: Gloria Schlomer, Michelle Higgins, Betty Manke, Dorothy Hettich, Dennis Baumann, Doug Weiszhaar, Bob White and Mike Permann.

The Gaslighters provided music for the dance which began at 9:30. Led by the class officers, the grand march was enjoyed by all.

Senior Class Play

All is peace and harmony in Cliff and Mary Dunstan's new country home until they make the mistake of accepting Patsy as a summer boarder and Grandma comes for a visit. Grandma, however, to pay for her board and keep, takes over the problems of the house. When she announces "Leave It To Grandma" they do, and the results were hilarious. Grandma solved problems such as love affairs, financing a home, and tending to the brat, Patsy, and brought the bright and swiftly moving comedy to a most satisfying curtain.

This comedy was directed by Robert Peterson and presented April 23. The cast included: Eliza, Donna Sjomeling; Mary Dunstan, Marvel Randall; Patsy Dorn, Donna Harris; Virginia Way, Sandy Baer; Cliff Dunstan, Roger Thorstenson; John Parker, Marlyn Rische; Jerry Cunningham, Jack Chesky; George Grant, Ray Steder; Grandma, Nyla Hettich; Henry Clay, Bill Birkholt; Joyce Grant, Judy Miller.

Junior Class Play

The high school and community of Selby were treated with a three act farce entitled "For Pop's Sake". Advance ticket sales and clever publicity attracted a full house.

The play is based around the Stafford home and its members who attempt to snag a husband for their father. The situation is complicated by numerous electrical devices hidden throughout the house.

After many devoted practices, the cast, under the direction of Miss Kaul, was well pleased with the final performance. The cast included:

Ingrid Hanson	Cynthia Manke
Alice Stafford	Nancy Thompson
Theodicia Twissel	Harriet Stensby
Sybil Sims	Rita Schnaible

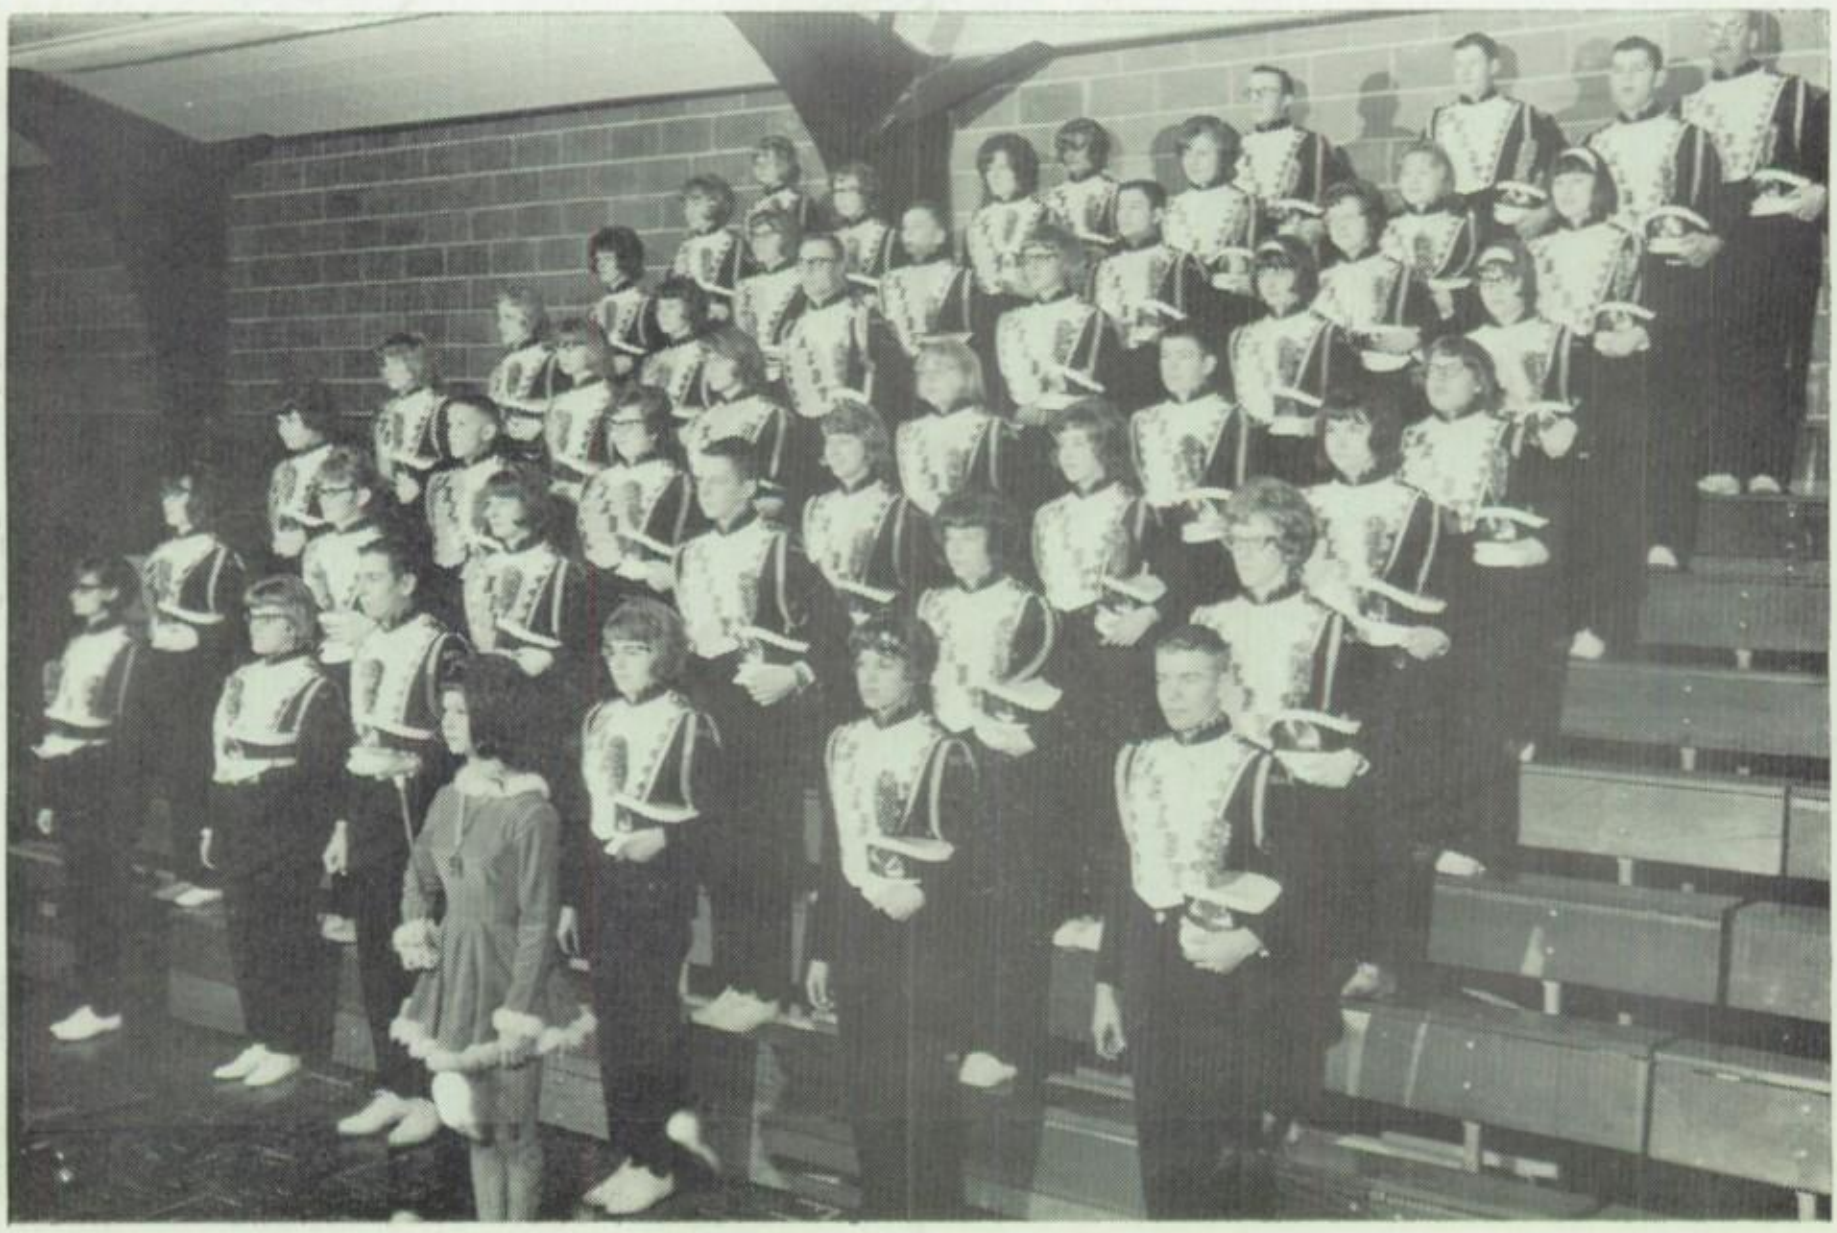
"A" Band

As the result of hard work and many extra hours of practice, the Band, Girls Glee and Mixed Chorus all came home victorious from the Mobridge Regional contest with three Division I ratings. At the Gypsy Day festivities in Aberdeen, Selby procured a Division II rating. Our directors, Miss Kaul and Mr. Goehring, worked together to present two concerts during the year which were fully enjoyed by all

Marching Band



Declamation

Under the direction of Miss Schuerkamp, four Selby High School students participated in declamation this year. With one student in each division, there was no doubt as to the outcome of the contest. Deanna Aman was our oratory contestant with Diana Stiegelmeier in the dramatic division. Poetry was read by Cynthia Manke and Billy Keller put us all in good spirits with his humorous reading. Deanna, Diana and Billy represented Selby in the District contest at Java. Superior ratings were won by Deanna and Diana who went on to the Regional contest at Miller. The State contest at Pierre, where she received an excellent rating, was the destination of Deanna after she again won a superior at the regional contest. Selby certainly has something to be proud of in these fine students.

As the District Tourney wrapped up the 1964-65 season, the Selby Lions came out with their usual share of honors. After capturing the consolation championship trophy in the Conference Tournament, the Lions, led by All Conference Roger Thorstenson and Ron Swift, and Honorable Mention Tim Pressler went on to regain the Yellowstone Trail Conference Championship.

After completing a tough schedule, the Lions entered the District Tourney figuring to be a great contender. After eliminating the Glenham Eagles in the first round game, Selby lost a thriller to the eventual champion Eureka Trojans. The following night the Lions lost the third-place game to Bowdle. Receiving honors in the District Tourney were Tim Pressler, All District, and Rog Thorstenson, Bill Rosin and Ron Swift as Honorable Mention.

Homecoming . . .

"A Day We'll Never Forget"

King Roger Thorstenson and Queen Peg Oxner were chosen to reign over the mighty kingdom of Selby High. Their loyal subjects were Sandy Baer, Donna Sjomeling, Wally Sieck and Marlyn Rische. Crown-bearers were Arlyn Russell and Karen Gregor and the gift-bearers were Jim Schilling and Lani Reede.

Coronation was held September 17 with Television Land as the theme. Each of the class floats was represented in the program by a musical selection.

The royal couple and their subjects attended the annual bonfire and hayride following coronation.

The Junior class float took first place in the parade held in the ever-present South Dakota wind. Second place was taken by the Freshman class and the Sophomores placed third.

Although the Lions were defeated by the Herreid Yellowjackets, the dance was enjoyed by everyone.

Football

As the 1964 football season began, the Lions had a young but wholly optimistic team, with only two Seniors in the starting lineup. After winning the first two games, injuries proved to be the downfall of the Lions, as the next three games were lost, including an 18-7 Homecoming defeat at the hands of Herreid. After recovering to win the next two games from Roscoe and Hosmer, the Lions ended the season with a 46-6 loss to Pollock, finishing in a tie with Java for fifth and sixth place with a 3-4 record in the conference.

The Lions of 1964, young and inexperienced, finished the season with a 4-4 record. As injuries plagued the Lions throughout the season, three key men were lost, including one of the Seniors, Roger Thorstenson. With only one Senior, Wally Sieck, to look to for leadership, the Lions were compelled to work harder than ever. With one more year of experience under their belts, the Lions gave warning that they must be reckoned with in the years ahead.

"S" Club

The lettermen's society, "S" Club, is composed of all football and basketball players, track men, and cheerleaders who letter at Selby high school.

The year's activity was an alumni vs. high school basketball game and dance, taking the place of the Christmas formal which is sponsored by the "S" Club.

In the spring of every year the club elects new officers for the following year. This year's officers were: Wally Sieck, President; Ronnie Swift, Vice President; and Donna Sjomeling, Secretary-Treasurer.

Initiation . . .

FUTURE BEAUTY IN OUR SCHOOL

Almighty superlative, transcendent, pleni-potentiary, minipimny, meritorious, grandiloquent, intelligent, luminous seniors, you are the giants of Selby High and we, the stupid, gaucherie, flagitious, homunculus, greenhorn freshmen, are the boards upon which you walk. Your every wish is our command.

With this specch the greenhorn freshmen were initiated into Selby High on September 9.

The boys attire consisted of short green skirts, nylons tied below the knee with balloons, gunny sack tied with green ribbons around the shoulders and high heels. Cowboy boots, old pants, old shirts, and five braids in their hair made up the girls outfit.

The freshmen were delighted to escort the seniors to dinner and cheerfully gave them a ride downtown on a flatbed.

Everyone assembled at the auditorium for Kangaroo Court at 7:00. A dance for the student body concluded the evening.

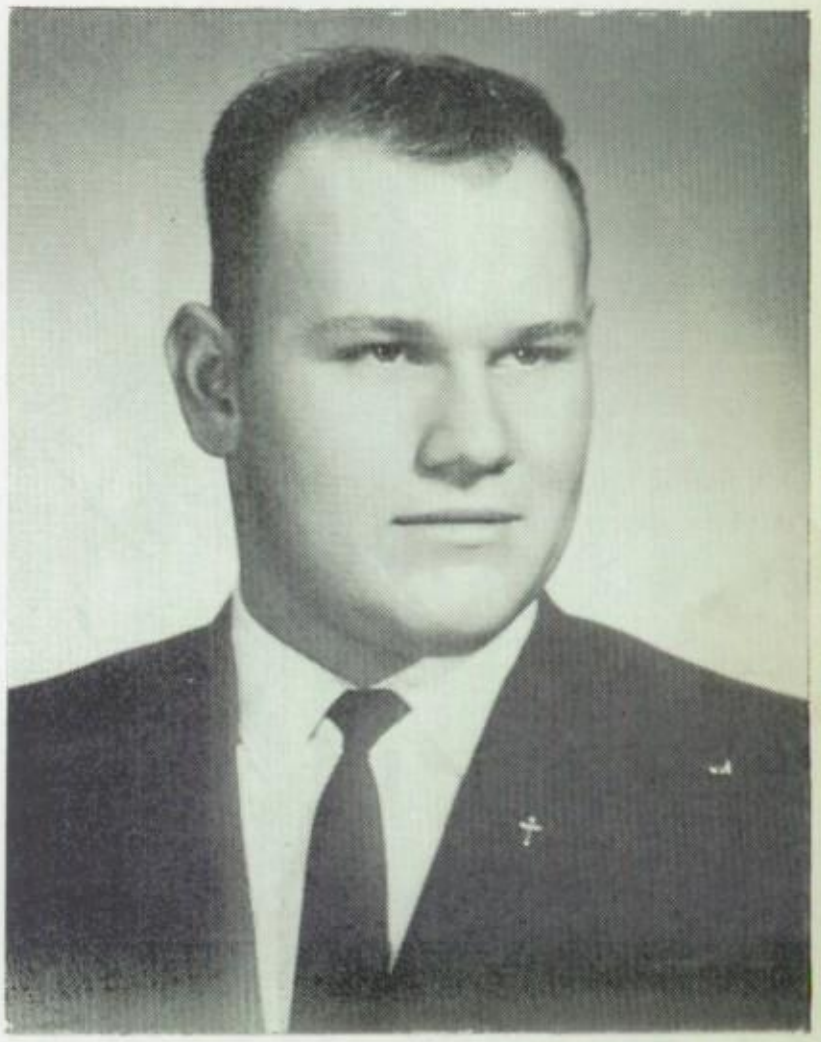
Always ready for a wise crack was KATHY TISDALL. "Tiz", as she was called by just about everyone, was called on for the various art work to be done. She has participated in Girls Glee for three years and also participated in the Junior class play. Tiz also served as librarian for two years.



STANLEY WEISS, joining our class in his Junior year, previously attended the Academy. While at the Academy, Stan was active in Boys Chorus for one year, Choir for three years and served as a waiter for the banquet. He helped his class in Selby by being a member of the production staffs of the plays and serving on various committees.

12-YEAR STUDENTS . . .

Those who attended S. H. S. all 12 years, are, left to right: Peg Schanzenbach, Judy Miller, Nyla Hettich, Raymond Steder, Sandy Baer, Wally Sieck, Carol Kosters, Marsha Lund, Bill Birkholt, Laurel Moos.

Music has taken up much of this blonde-haired Senior's time. DONNA SJOMELING has been active in Pep Band, "A" Band, Girls Glee, Mixed Chorus and horn solos throughout her years at S. H. S. She has sung in various ensembles and played in brass sextette and French Horn Quartet. Donna has served as Freshman class secretary, on the Student Council as a Sophomore, secretary-treasurer of the "S" Club in her Senior year, and served as typist on the Annual Staff in her last two years of high school. Among her accomplishments are attendant to Queen Peggy, cheerleader for two years, waitress for the prom, and Ambassador for the graduation of the Seniors. Donna also participated in the class plays.

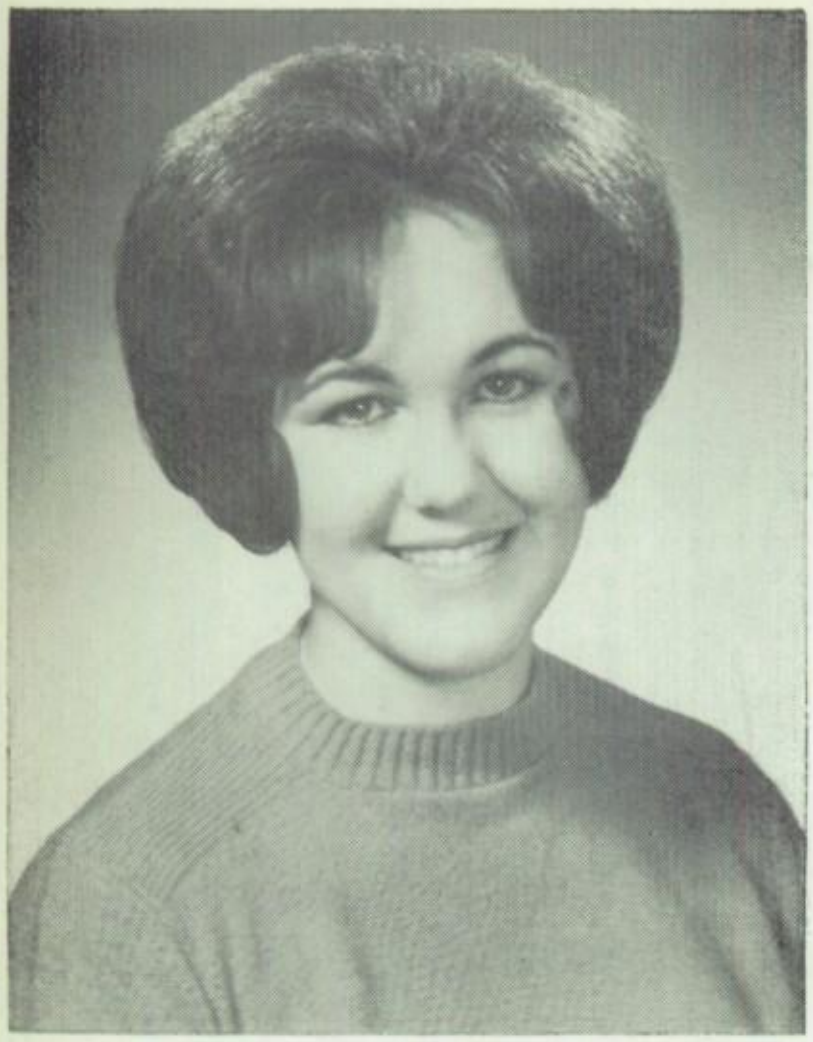
A quieter member of the Senior class was RAYMOND STEDER. Ray's main interest in high school was science. As a Sophomore he was a member of the Science club. Ray participated in track for 1 year and was a member of the plays for two years.

Chosen as Selby's Homecoming King for 1964-65 was ROGER THORSTENSON. This athletic Senior aided the Lions for four years in basketball, football, and track. Roger served on the Student Council during his Freshman and Senior years, waiter for the prom in his Sophomore year, alternate Boy's Stater, editor for the Annual Staff, and participated in both plays. His music activities included Boys and Mixed Chorus for four years, and All-State chorus for three years as well as various solos.

Where there is a picture to be taken, there you will find MARLYN RISCHE. Marlyn has been the Annual photographer for two years. Some of Marlyn's fonder memories of high school are being chosen waiter for the prom in his Sophomore year, Ambassador to the graduation in his Junior year and a royal attendant to King Roger in his senior year. Marlyn participated in football and track for two years and was a member of the play casts.

Music kept this red-headed Senior busy throughout her high school career. PEGGY SCHANZENBACH participated in A and Pep Band, Girls Glee and Mixed Chorus for four years. She sang in the Girls Quartette in her Freshman year and Girls Ensemble in her Sophomore year as well as playing horn solos and accompanying on the piano. Peggy was chosen as Alternate Girls Stater in her Junior year and was student director in band during her Senior year.

Good-natured WALLY SIECK always has a word to brighten the faces of his classmates. He was salutatorian of the Senior class. This studious Senior was active in football, basketball and track for four years. Wally served as president of the "S" Club, president of the Senior class, served on the Student Council in his Sophomore year, was waiter for the prom and Boy's Stater. He has been part of the Annual Staff for two years, the Junior class play and was chosen as one of King Roger's attendants.



Attending all twelve years of school in Selby was LAUREL MOOS. Better known to her classmates as Laurie, she has participated in Girls Glee for four years. Laurie served on various committees and as librarian during her Senior year.

Reigning over Selby as Homecoming Queen for 1964-65 was PEGGY OXNER. Throughout her four years at S. H. S. Peg has been active in "A" and Pep Band, and Girls Glee. In her Freshman year she was class treasurer and was chosen secretary and waitress for the prom in her Sophomore year. During her Junior and Senior years Peg served on the Band Council and was vice president and president of the Student Council. Being an Ambassador for graduation was a highlight of her Junior year. As the Annual Staff feature editor, she was kept very busy throughout her Junior and Senior years.

A newcomer to the Junior class, MARVEL RANDALL was chosen as a D. A. R. candidate from Selby. This red-headed Senior participated in Girl's Glee for two years and Mixed Chorus for one. Marvel was chosen as the Senior class secretary-treasurer and portrayed "Mary" in the Senior class play.

MARSHA LUND, a petite blue-eyed Senior, has been a member of the Girl's Chorus for four years and Mixed Chorus for one. Marsha has served as librarian and on various committees throughout her high school days. She did her part in the plays by serving on the production staff.

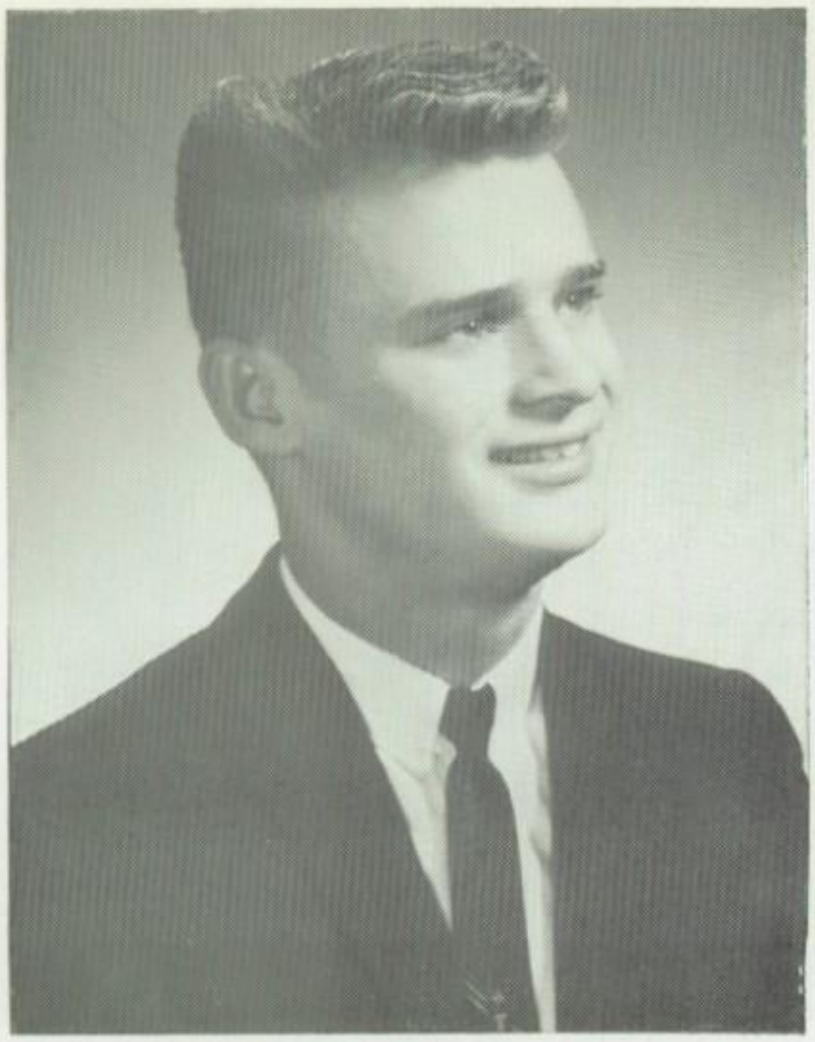
A transfer from Java in his Senior year was RONNIE MEIER. While in Java Ronnie played basketball and was active in track. He was chosen as a prom waiter in his Sophomore year and took part in the Junior class play.

Representing Selby in the Annual Snow Queen contest was the highlight in JUDY MILLER'S high school days. Judy was active in Girls Chorus two years. Portraying "Joyce" in the class play completed her Senior year. Judy served on various committees in her high school years and helped work on many floats.

Portraying Patsy in the play completed DONNA HARRIS' Senior year. She was active in Band and Girls Glee for four years. Donna was also chosen as the drum majorette in her last two years of high school.

Valedictorian of the Senior class of 1964-65 is NYLA HETTICH. This blue-eyed senior has been active in "A" Band and Pep Band for four years, Girls Glee for four years and Mixed Chorus for two years. Nyla was chosen as Girls Stater and won the Betty Crocker award. Taking part in the Junior and Senior class plays and working on the Annual Staff completed her high school career. Nyla was chosen by her classmates to be vice president of the Senior class.

Always ready with a helping hand was CAROL KOSTERS. Carol seemed to have a liking for popcorn machines for she spent much of her time popping popcorn throughout her high school years. Carol also served on various committees and was a member of Girls Chorus. She also had a part in the Junior class play.



JACK CHESKY, always ready for fun, plans to enter the Air Force after graduation. Jack was active in basketball and track for two years. He served on the Annual Staff for two years and on the Student Council in his Junior year. Participating in the Senior class play took up much of Jack's leisure time. Jack has also served on numerous committees throughout his high school days.

Joining our Senior class at semester time was DEAN CRAVENS, a transfer student from Monterey Park, California. In California Dean was active in basketball and football in his Freshman, Sophomore and Junior years.

JANE FORD, a lively young senior has been active in girls chorus for three years and was the Junior class vice-president. She helped her class by serving on many various committees.

Seniors . . .

A major task and enjoyable highlight of SANDY BAER'S high school days was cheerleading for four years. A member of the Royalty during the Homecoming festivities, All-State Chorus for two years, Sophomore class president, Junior class treasurer and secretary-treasurer of the "S" Club in her Junior year are among her accomplishments. Sandy's music activities consisted of Band, Girls Chorus, Mixed Chorus and various solos and ensembles for four years and Boys Chorus for one year. Sandy served on the band council and was a member of the play cast for two years.

SHARON BAUMANN, better known to her classmates as "Annie", was active in Girls Glee and Mixed Chorus throughout high school. She also sang in the Triple Trio and the Girl's Ensemble. Chosen by her class, Sharon served as Sophomore treasurer and Junior class president. The Junior class play and the two years on the annual staff kept Sharon quite busy.

Always ready for a little fun was this tall red-headed senior. BILL BIRKHOLT was a handy guy to have around. He served on float committees and was a big help in getting the Junior Prom underway. Bill also acted as "Henry" in the Senior class play.
